

AGREEMENT

The undersigned represents to Les Dames d'Escoffier International that the work that is being submitted is original text written by the undersigned (or the author whose name appears below) that does not infringe upon the copyright, trademark, privacy right or any other intellectual property right of any third party.

In submitting the text to LDEI for consideration, the undersigned expressly releases and will hold forever harmless Les Dames d'Escoffier International, its directors, officers, employees and judges from any claim, expense or liability of any nature whatsoever out of the selection, judging, awards process and/or LDEI's publication or use of the submitted text.

The undersigned further specifically represents that if she is not the author of the text submitted, the undersigned is fully authorized to sign this form on behalf of the author and to bind the author by terms of this agreement.

Rights to reprint submission upon selection

The undersigned allows Les Dames d'Escoffier International to reprint the submitted entry in the event that her submission should win an award. The reprint will be expressly used for publicity purposes on behalf of the winner and for possible reprint in the awards program, the organization's magazine, and/on the organization's website: www.ldei.org.
